

Terra Nova Gallery Presents
Plein Air Painting Workshop with Robert McKay
September 25-26, 2009

OVERVIEW

Terra Nova Gallery is pleased to announce our first painting workshop with Robert McKay.

Robert has over 17 years of experience painting "en plein air" and teaching. As a fine artist, he paints for galleries and has won awards and sold through plein air competitions. As an illustrator, Robert paints outdoors for narrative authenticity just as the Golden Age illustrators did. As a current instructor at Salt Lake Community College, he paints with and teaches his foundation students plein air. Robert has taught landscape painting workshops in such places as Wheeler Farm, Heber Valley, Albion Basin, Snowbird and Park City.

$125.00 for the two day workshop which includes:

- Two days of instruction and painting with Robert McKay
- 8am to Dusk (ok, we'll take some breaks for food!)
- Limit of 10 participants (small workshop size allows more personalized instruction)
- Introduction to the Color Infusion Principle
- Learn to manipulate the elements of color value in your paintings
- One-on-one instruction & critique
- Group critique
- Classroom lecture
- And much more!

Please fill out the registration below and return it with your workshop payment. Enrollment is limited to 10 persons (minimum of three to hold workshop). $50.00 deposit to reserve your spot, (deposit is non-refundable after September 18th) $75.00 balance due September 18th. Please make check payable to Terra Nova Gallery. Sorry no credit or debit cards accepted.
